

Response from the Children's Society

This report is both interesting and important. Congratulations to you and colleagues involved in this research, and good luck in your activities using this to influence decision-makers on this important issue.

- Chloe Grant

Area Manager, Children & Young People's Services- Greater London
The Children's Society